DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609.04(a) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

Specification

2. The use of the trademark "Teezitup" has been noted in this application. It should be capitalized "TEEZITUP" wherever it appears and be accompanied by the generic terminology.

Although the use of trademarks is permissible in patent applications, the proprietary nature of the marks should be respected and every effort made to prevent their use in any manner which might adversely affect their validity as trademarks.

3. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

- a. The word "devise" in line 23 of page 7 is misspelled.

b. Capitalizing the word "Flexibility" in line 28 of page 7 does not make sense in that it is in the middle of a sentence. The space before the word "Flexibility" also is not consistent with other spacing between words in sentences.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

4. The numbering of claims is not in accordance with 37 CFR 1.126 which requires the original numbering of the claims to be preserved throughout the prosecution. When claims are canceled, the remaining claims must not be renumbered. When new claims are presented, they must be numbered consecutively beginning with the number next following the highest numbered claims previously presented (whether entered or not).

In this case four claims were presented with no numbers. As such the four claims have been consecutively numbered from 1 to 4 from the first presented claim to the last presented claim and as such the applicant should refer to these numbers in future responses.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claims 1-4 contains the trademark/trade name teezitup. Where a trademark or trade name is used in a claim as a limitation to identify or describe a particular material or product, the claim does not comply with the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph. See Ex parte Simpson, 218 USPQ 1020 (Bd. App. 1982). The claim scope is uncertain since the trademark or trade name cannot be used properly to identify any particular material or product. A trademark or trade name is used to identify a source of goods, and not the goods themselves. Thus, a trademark or trade name does not identify or describe the goods associated with the trademark or trade name. In the present case, the trademark/trade name is used to identify/describe a device able to place a ball on a tee and, accordingly, the identification/description is indefinite.

6. Claims 3-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 3 recites the limitation "the tee" in line 2 and in claim 4 recites the limitation "the ball" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claim. It is recommended to replace the word "the" with the word -- a -- to overcome this rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. Claims 2 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Colbo.

Colbo discloses a pocket size hinged, fold up device (Figs. 4-6) which is able to pick up a ball off any surface and place it on a variety of different size and shaped tees (Figs. 1-3).

9. Claims 2 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Huber.

Huber discloses a pocket size hinged, fold up device (Figs. 2-3) which is able to pick up a ball off any surface and place it on a variety of different size and shaped tees (Fig. 7).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

10. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3711

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

11. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Colbo or Huber in view of O'Donnell.

Colbo or Huber lack a device which clamps on various size grips. O'Donnell discloses a ball device which clamps on various size grips (Fig. 1). In view of the publication of O'Donnell it would have been obvious to modify the device of Colbo or Huber to have a clamp in order to be able to secure the ball retriever device to a grip which did not have a hole in the end of the grip to secure a ball retriever to.

12. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over O'Donnell in view of Hood.

O'Donnell discloses a device which has two stabilizing platforms in the form of top seat (20) and the back of the jaws (34) to firmly position a golf tee as it is inserted into the ground (Fig. 5).

O'Donnell lacks a hinge to fold up the device. Hood discloses prongs which have a hinge (Fig. 2) to conveniently transport with a reduced possibility of the prongs causing damage or injury (Col. 2, Lns. 30-35). In view of the patent of Hood it would have been obvious to modify the ball retriever of O'Donnell to have prongs each having a hinge to conveniently transport the device with a reduced possibility of the prongs causing damage or injury.
